CHINESE UNREST.

High Feeling at Macao.

Our Macao correspondent, writing under date of the 4th instant, says:—One would say that some cross-grained genius had indemnified John for the loss of his quene by enduing him with a sense of self-conceit and a spirit of affrontary and dare-devilry which, if not curbed in time, will surely lead to a most lamentable sequel. When faced with the query about the shortage in funds he will say "No money? Tut, tut, we have plenty of money.
You just wait a couple of months and see what we are going to do in Hongkong.
Why, the English are already quaking in their shoes!" No wonder they rattle away in this strain when the vernacular prose greets them with such exhortations as that the rebels in the North had butchered several thousand Japanese troops who had been sent to assist the Imperialists and that the Emperor of Japan was actually crying his eyes out!That queue-cutting is going on at an abnormal pace is evidenced by the non-attendance of Chinese barbers, under monthly engagements, at private residences, on the plea of being unable to quit their saloons which are never empty.
The spirit of rowdiness in Macao, which was, till recently, a latent factor, has during the last three days fizzled out in little ebullitions which are pregnant of import. On Saturday evening, on the finest of pretexts, a mob gathered round a police private who was on duty in the market place with the obvious intent of hedgeing him. With his bayonet, the only weapon he had on him, the soldier strove to get clear of the crowd and in doing so he wounded a fisherman on the lip. At eight o'clock the rabble dispersed. Yesterday evening as another patrolman was perambulating along the inner shore-line a couple of natives brushed against him and one of them knocked off his hat. On realizing what had been done him, the aggravated party was on the point of drawing his revolver when he was stayed in time from mischief by a sergeant who happened to be close by. The two natives were arrested.The Patria has returned from Coloman-as the garrison there has been reinforced.
If the practical gangs are seeking a new stronghold on the island it is not likely that they shall go there in box-loads. In our midst there is a most noticeable increase of rascals.
The contingents from Africa and India are expected here on or about 10th inst.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A very enjoyable dance was given at Kingsclere last night, over one hundred couples being present.

Our old friends, the 1st bat. of the West Yorks leave India for England this month. They are going to Lichfield.

The Admiralty has prohibited sailors from taking part in boxing matches for remuneration. This prohibition does not affect the usual boxing competitions in the Navy.

The scenes at Hankow, Hangyang and Wuchang described in the Shanghai papers to hand are very terrible. A protest has been printed at the continuous work being done on these ghastly fields by cinematograph operators.

The following telegram was received by the American Consulate General from the Manila Observatory at 10.35 a.m. today.—Manila, December 7, 9.20 a.m. Cyclone or typhoon E. of Southern Luzon, moving W. W. N.

On November 18th the rebel flag was hoisted over every club, shop and home of the Chinese residents of Calcutta, and in honour of the reported fall of Peking the shops were closed and general rejoicing and celebrations were indulged in.

An attempt is at present being made to get the Crown Agents for the Colonies to receive tenders from merchants. At present only tenders from actual manufacturers of the goods required are considered; the object being to eliminate the middleman and save his charges.

Mr. O. Locker-Lampson, Unfaint M.P. for the Ramsey division of Huntingdon, has been awarded £2,000 damages against the Peterborough Citizen and the Huntingdon News, two Liberal organs, in consequence of their having published libellous articles concerning him during the last general election.

A rumour having been circulated in the Colony that the proprietor of the Empire Theatre organised the boxing contest there on Saturday night, Mr. Ramon wishes it to be clearly understood that he did not organise the fight. The hall was hired by Mr. Nicoll, of the Imperial Hotel, and Mr. Ramon had nothing whatever to do with the boxing contest.

The R.E.N.C.O.'s Mess held another of their popular Whist Drives on Tuesday evening, no fewer than thirty tables being set out to the full complement of players. The prize winners were:—Ladies, 1st, Mrs. Edgar; 2nd, Mrs. Fuller; 3rd, Miss Langdon; 4th, Miss Keane; 5th, Miss Mott. Gents:—1st, Mr. West; 2nd, Mr. McLean; 3rd, Mr. Langdon; 4th, Mr. Lock; 5th, Sgt. Crockett; 6th, Mr. Churche; 7th, Sgt. Morgan.

Referring to the appointment of Mr. Claud Severn as Col. in the 1st Secretary of Hongkong, the Straits Times says:—During his association with the Colony, he has, indeed, with the F.M.S., Mr. Severn has been brought into touch with a wide circle of friends not only by reason of his official duties, to which he has always devoted himself most assiduously, but especially on account of the great interest he has taken in healthy recreation. He is a keen tennis player, and played in the final of the Veteran Championship at the last tournament when he and Mr. Hooper were beaten by the Governor and the Hon. F. J. Pigott. He is frequently seen on the golf links and often takes part in cricket matches on the Esplanade. By his leaving Singapore, music-lovers will lose one who has done so much towards sustaining a keen interest in the art, his numerous contributions at concerts and other functions being always greatly appreciated. Every one will wish him the greatest success in his new sphere of activity though it is certain he will leave Singapore not without some feelings of regret at parting with so many genuine friends.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. N. G. Nolan, chief interpreter at the Supreme Court, has been granted twelve months' leave of absence from April 3, next year. Mr. Wong Kwong Tin, second interpreter, will act as chief interpreter during the absence of Mr. Nolan.

Mr. William Kewick, M.P. for the Epsom Division of Surrey, is to receive his portrait in oils from his constituents in appreciation of his services and as a mark of esteem. Mr. Harold Stood was commissioned to paint the portrait.

WARDMASTER'S BAD END.

On Wednesday morning, about 10 o'clock, the dead body of William Edward Cooke, wardmaster at the Kennedy Town Infirmary Hospital, was found in the bathroom. All appearances point to suicide from poisoning. Deceased was a single man about 35 years of age and it was not known that he had any trouble. The previous night he requested the boy not to disturb him after having laid his supper, since when he was not seen. The windows and doors were all fastened and locked when found by a boy who dressed in his pyjamas.

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER.

When buying a cough medicine for a child, bear in mind that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is best for colds, coughs, and whooping cough, and that it is a safe and reliable remedy for all children's ailments.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

There was a brief agenda at the meeting of the Legislative Council this afternoon, at which His Excellency the Governor (Sir F. D. Lugard) presided. A Bill was read a first time entitled an Ordinance to amend the Ordinance relating to Public Health and Buildings.

The Council also agreed to the first reading of a Bill entitled An Ordinance to amend the Statute Laws (New Revised Edition) Ordinance, 1911.

Consideration was given in committee to the Bill entitled An Ordinance to further amend the University Ordinance, 1911.

The only other measure considered was the Bill entitled An Ordinance to consolidate and amend the Ordinances relating to Companies, which was discussed in committee.

At a Finance Committee subsequently held the following votes were passed:—

ACCIDENT TO THE GLENFALLOCH.

Drops her Propeller off Hainan.

The well-known Swatow-Straits liner Glenfalloch, Captain Townsend, has met with a nasty accident. When just off Gaslong Bay, on the east coast of Hainan, twelve days ago, she had the misfortune to drop her propeller. The ship was manoeuvred into Gaslong Bay, where she anchored down, and Captain Townsend, proceeded ashore for assistance. It took him ten days to traverse the island, and on reaching Hainan he at once communicated with Hongkong. A tug has been dispatched to the assistance of the Glenfalloch, with appliances for effecting repairs. The Glenfalloch left Singapore on the 18th ult., with 775 passengers on board bound for Hongkong and in the ordinary course of events she might have accomplished the voyage in six days, or, allowing for exceptionally bad weather, eight. The vessel was formerly one of the Wee Bin line, but on the sale of that fleet she was purchased by the owners of the Ho Hong line.

NATIONAL INSURANCE.

FATE OF THE OPPOSITION MOTION.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Dec. 7.

Mr. Forster, moving in the House of Commons his amendment to the National Insurance Bill, emphasised the argument that it was not intended as a wrecking measure. The motion was a demand that the Government could accept without loss of prestige and with benefit to the measure.

Mr. Lloyd George described the amendment as a shifty method of moving the destruction of the Bill. Regulations could not be prepared until the Bill was in operation. Assuming that there were mistakes they were not irretrievable. Reconsideration of the scheme would only mean the reopening of old controversies and the throwing away of months of labour.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald said the Bill was a class of measure which would be more numerous in the future. The choice would presently lay between no legislation or legislation only partially satisfactory.

Mr. Bonar Law pointed out the Opposition's awkward position. If they said No, it implied that they were opposed to the principle of the Bill. If they said Yes, it implied that they approved of the Bill as it stood. If the amendment were considered apart from party it would have the overwhelming support of a majority in the House of Commons. The Opposition would vote for the amendment, but so far as he was concerned, he would not participate in any further division, leaving it to the Government to shoulder the responsibility.

Mr. Forster's amendment was rejected on a division by a vote of 320 to 223.

THE EUROPEAN WAR.

ITALIANS FOLLOW UP VICTORY.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Dec. 7.

Reuter's correspondent at Rome telegraphs that following up Monday's victory, the Italians, after an aeroplane reconnaissance cleared out the Arabs in the neighbourhood of Ain Zara. They engaged three thousand Turks and Arabs, some five miles from Ain Zara, but the artillery coming up, the Turks fled, leaving much ammunition, grain and other stores.

THE EMPIRE'S COMMERCIAL RELATIONS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

LONDON, Dec. 6.

In the House of Lords, Lord Killarney asked when, in pursuance of the resolution passed at the Imperial Conference, the Royal Commission would be appointed to enquire into the commercial relations, shipping and means of transport throughout the Empire.

Lord Emmott, in reply, said he was sorry he could not give a categorical answer to the question. Correspondence with regard to some of the details was proceeding normally and satisfactorily, though it was a lengthy business in a world-wide Empire and some further delay was inevitable before an announcement could be made.

GERMANY'S POLICY.
A FORWARD DEVELOPMENT.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Dec. 6.
Dr. Bethmann-Hollweg, in continuing his speech in the Reichstag, said until Mr. Lloyd George's speech Germany would willingly have given any explanations with regard to its Moroccan policy for which she was asked, but the remarks of the British Government were not interpreted as a question. While Germany sincerely desired amicable relations with England, this could only be obtained through Britain's recognition of Germany's position in the world and her legitimate aspirations. Other nations must reckon with the forward development of Germany, who would continue to work in the peaceful spirit of the last 40 years by keeping herself strong.

AVIATION - TRAGEDY.

AIRMAN AND PASSENGER KILLED.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Dec. 6.
Hubert Oxley, the Yorkshire aviator was killed in a smash at Hkley. A German passenger carried on the airship was also fatally injured.

POSTAL GRIEVANCES.

TALK OF A CHRISTMAS STRIKE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Dec. 6.
There is grave discontent among the Post Office employees, who allege that there is needless delay in the consideration of their grievances.
There is much talk of a strike at Christmas.

AUSTRALIAN CRICKET.

N.S.W. BEATS AUSTRALIA.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Dec. 6.
The match between New South Wales and Australia resulted in an easy victory for the former, who scored 315 in their first innings and 352 in their second, Australia replying with 209 and 98.
For the winners Trumper knocked up 47 in the first innings, Burdley 35, Cotter 32 and E. Waddy 73 not out. Rees took 4 wickets for 94 runs and Wright 3 for 40. In the second innings Waddy made 40 and Roy Minnett 37 not out. Whitty captured 3 wickets for 76 and Crawford 3 for 82.
In the South Australian first innings Hill scored 59. Hazlett took 5 wickets 4 for 47 and Cotter 5 for 34.

M.C.C. V. TOOWOOMBA.

LATER.
The match between M.C.C. and Toowoomba was played on an easy wicket and the attendance was fair.
Marylebone knocked up 340 for the loss of six wickets, and then declared the innings closed. Woolley made 99 in free style, his score including four 6's and ten 4's while Kinnear made 80 by free cricket, though his innings was lucky; he gave three chances. Iremonger scored 50 not out.
The Toowoomba eleven had scored 45 for 6 wickets at the close of the day's play.

TRUCKLING TO THE IRISH.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Dec. 6.
In the House of Commons, Mr. O'Brien asked, in order to allay anxiety in Ireland owing to a recent Ministerial announcement, whether the Cabinet would undertake to pass Home Rule in the House of Commons in three successive sessions before the dissolution of Parliament.
Mr. Asquith, in reply, said he trusted that the Bill would have a smoother course than Mr. O'Brien appeared to anticipate, but, if necessary, the Government would use all the constitutional means in their power to pass the measure within the life time of the present Parliament. (Loud Nationalist cheers.)

CANADA'S NAVAL POLICY.

LONDON, December 6th.
Reuter's correspondent at Peking cables that reinforcements for the legation guards are arriving daily. The foreign troops now in Peking exceed two thousand.

PRINCE REGENT RESIGNS.

THE PRIME MINISTER IS SUPREME.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Dec. 7.
Reuter's correspondent at Peking telegraphs that the Prince Regent has resigned the Regency, which office now lapses.
The Ex-Grand Councilors Hsui-chang and Shih-hsu have been appointed guardians of the Emperor.
The administration remains in the hands of the Premier, while the Empress Dowager and the Emperor will merely hold audiences and carry out ceremonial functions.

THE INSURANCE BILL.

THIRD READING PASSED.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Dec. 7.
In the House of Commons the Insurance Bill has passed the third reading by a majority of 324 to 21. The minority consisted mostly of Labourites. Some of the Unionists voted for the bill while others simply walked out.

DECLARATION OF LONDON.

LORDS TO STAND FIRM.

LONDON, Dec. 7.
It is considered certain that the House of Lords will reject the Naval Prize Bill, involving the Declaration of London.

FOREIGN POLITICS.

SPEECH BY SIR EDWARD GREY.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, December 6.
Sir Edward Grey, speaking at Plymouth, said that Persia was in the throes of a severe crisis, which was occupying the attention of the Government, whose views would be fully explained next week. He said the settlement of the Franco-German differences in Morocco should have a beneficial influence on Anglo-German relations. If the Morocco depression was passing the diplomatic barometer should rise. He paid a tribute to the attitude of the Conservatives in excluding foreign affairs from party politics, saying the Foreign Secretary was bound to be hampered in maintaining the interests of the country abroad if he was subjected to constant attacks at home.

RUSSIA AND PERSIA.

PERSIA PRESENTS ULTIMATUM.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, December 6.
The special correspondent of the "Morning Post" at Teheran states that Persia on Monday presented an ultimatum to Russia, demanding that her troops should not proceed beyond Kasvin and that further reinforcements should be countermanded. The ultimatum stated that unless the terms were acceded to within thirty hours, Persia would take the offensive.

LATER.
Reuter's Constantinople correspondent confirms that the Porte has circulated the Powers' respecting Persia and Macedonia. The circular draws attention to the grave consequences and hopes that a solution will be found to safeguard Persian national independence.

THE DURBAR FIRE.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)
LONDON, Dec. 6.
Reuter's correspondent at Delhi states that owing to the fire in the Durbar camp Viscount Hardinge has decided to hold the reception of ruling chiefs under the arches of Shah Jahan's court of public audience, which will result in a great addition to the dignity and picturesqueness of the initial ceremony of the Durbar.
